

Real Series >> DUB GUITAR FX

Future Loops is proud to present Dub Guitar FX, a unique collection of dubified guitar FX that will ignite those creative sparks in your Dub productions !

Sometimes all you need to make your track stand out is that one-of-a-kind guitar sound effect or those out-of-the box guitar textures that are so essential in Dub productions and instantly make a tune that more special !

Been there ? Then you know that in times like these a synth FX just won't cut it , what you need are live recorded guitar fx so we packed Dub Guitar FX with 400 samples featuring all sort of licks, chords , guitar noises and yummy fret textures !

You get 200 Semi-Dry samples (samples were recorded live with some delay , reverb or other types of fx) and 200 Wet samples (this is where the fun really begins - these are the original samples after being transported through a chain of all sorts of sonic abuse , processing and sound mangling) . Any tempo-based FX applied to the samples was synced to the dub-friendly tempo of 70 BPM for easy match .
