

Real Series >> Dub Horns Section

Future Loops is proud to release “Dub Horns Section”, a mighty collection of brass loops specially forged for Dub and Reggae productions.

“Dub Horns Section” is here to bring your productions some sweet , organic , raw and velvety harmonies ! For any dub/reggae producer having high-quality horns section arrangements is an absolute must, whether you’re into a more upbeat and celebrating mood or into a mellow and smokier vibe.

There is plenty of variety and diversity in “Dub Horns Section” featuring many ready-to-mix arrangements with Saxophone, Trumpet and Trombone.

For complete mix control each arrangement has different variations and includes the Sax, Trumpet and Trombone as separate loops as well as the full mix version that consists of all instruments pre-mixed for instant dub gratification !

Real Series >> Dub Horns Section

We kept “Dub Horns Section” at the convenient dub-friendly tempo of 70 BPM and the loops are in 3 different keys: A, Bmin and Gmin.

To really give you even more juice and editing potential we pre-sliced all (yes we love to do the hard work for you) the loops into one-shots ! We are talking about hours and hours of editing that resulted into thousands of one-shot samples!

Having this many Sax , Trumpet or Trombone single sounds at your fingertips is critical for any dub producer so you can really take things to the next level , get your hands dirty and build completely new patterns from scratch!

Here’s what you can find inside “Dub Horns Section” :
