Future Loops presents eVOKATIVE - Massive Soundset, a collection of 50 absorbing and alluring presets for NI Massive!

Gai Barone is the author of eVOKATIVE – Massive Soundset. After his debut at Future Loops with the highly sought “Gai Barone – Progressivo” sample pack , Gai now developed an extremely useful and creative collection of Presets for NI Massive that’s suitable for many electronic music styles.

Techno, Minimal, House, Ambient, Dubstep, Progressive, Trance...The presets in eVOKATIVE– Massive Soundset suit all these styles perfectly due to their exploratory nature and unique texture . This is a set of evocative and suggestive sounds that will surely expand your Massive sound palette even further and provide with many hours of inspiration .

The presets fall into different categories from Leads , Chords , Mallet , Percussive , Bass and Synthetik to Pads, Soundscapes , Sequences or Sound Effects . Each one of the 50 presets has 8 pre-defined Macro controls that allow you to easily shape the sounds and tweak any parameters you want. Let your imagination decide..!
